

Claim for Fuzzy Wuzzy Angels Commemorative Medallion

The Fuzzy Wuzzy Angels Commemorative Medallion

The Fuzzy Wuzzy Angels Commemorative Medallion is a symbol of Australia's appreciation for the care and assistance extended by PNG civilians to Australian servicemen in Papua and New Guinea during World War II. Many Australians, wounded and suffering terrible illnesses, owe their lives to these civilians who came to be affectionately known as 'Fuzzy Wuzzy Angels'.

Important information

The information in this form:

- is sought, and required, to assess your eligibility for the Fuzzy Wuzzy Angels Commemorative Medallion;
- will be used for the purpose of assessing your claim for the medallion;
- may be released by the Australian Government to the Papua New Guinea Government, religious leaders or village/tribal leaders, where necessary, in assessing your claim for the medallion; and
- will be held by the Department of Veterans' Affairs, but may be released to the Australian War Memorial for the purpose of historical research.

NOTE: The Fuzzy Wuzzy Angels Commemorative Medallion is not a part of the Australian Honours and Awards System. Eligibility for the medallion does not provide eligibility to any other entitlements from the Australian Government.

Who can apply for the medallion?

- A living Papua New Guinea civilian who assisted Australian servicemen during World War II.
- A surviving widow/widower of a Papua New Guinea civilian who assisted Australian servicemen during World War II.

Eligibility Criteria

For the purposes of issuing the Fuzzy Wuzzy Angels Commemorative Medallion a Fuzzy Wuzzy Angel is a person who:

- is an indigenous Papua New Guinean;
- assisted Australian servicemen in what is now known as Papua New Guinea during World War II;
- was no younger than 10 years old at the time of rendering assistance; and
- was a civilian at the time of rendering assistance.

Examples of assistance

Carriers, stretcher bearers, cooks, drivers, building labourers, maintenance workers on air strips

For the purposes of issuing the medallion, a widow/widower of a Fuzzy Wuzzy Angel is someone who was married (via Customary Marriage or Statutory Marriage) to a Fuzzy Wuzzy Angel who is now deceased.

To be eligible to receive the medallion, a person must be a living Fuzzy Wuzzy Angel (as described above) or the living widow or widower of a Fuzzy Wuzzy Angel.
